Senators and Executives are automatically impeached, removed from office and posted on the next available ASG Senate Board meeting agenda for reappointment. At that time the Executive or Senator may explain the reasons as to why they could not attend those meetings. It will require a majority vote of the ASG Senate Board to reappoint the impeached Senator or Executive.

SECTION B. Any ASG member may request that the, ASG President, the ASG Executive of Administration, or the LACC Disciplinarian investigate an Executive or Senator's breach of the ASG governing documents. The ASG President or Executive of Administration may request an investigation, but not conduct the investigation they are requesting. The accused party must be notified of the investigation by the investigator. If the individual charged with the investigation (ASG President, the ASG Executive of Administration or Disciplinarian) concludes that the accusations are a clear violation based on the preponderance of evidence, the Executive or Senator charged with such alleged improper conduct must be posted as an agenda item on the following ASG Senate Board meeting, stating the Executive or Senator's name and the words "impeachment hearing." The ASG Senate Board may charge the impeached Executive or Senator with violations of the ASG governing documents through a majority vote. 1. Presumption of Innocence. It is presumed that an Executive or Senators charged with a violation of the ASG governing documents is not guilty of said violations until a majority of the Senate votes otherwise, as described in Article VIII Section B.
2. The conduct process works best when students and staff collaboratively come to an informal resolution of cases. A student may choose not to participate in the resolution of their case. When the impeachment hearing is held in an Executive or Senator's absence, the decisions of the Senate will have the same force and effect as if the Executive or Senator had been present. The impeached Executive or Senator may also choose to remain silent during any portion of the conduct process and no inference will be drawn from their silence.

3. There is no appeal of the ASG Senate Board's decision to remove an Executive or Senator; however, the Executive or Senator charged with infringements of the ASG governing documents can ask the ASG President or Dean of Student Services or his/her designee to be reappointed. The ASG Senate Board has the ultimate power to re-appoint an Executive or Senator previously impeached, following the procedure of appointment.
